

Barry C. Spagna

Vice President
New York

Professional Experience

Barry started his commercial real estate career in 2010, advocating solely on behalf of corporate occupiers. In August 2012 he joined Cresa in the New York office and works with senior level real estate professionals. Using market knowledge, timing and attention to detail, he creates leverage to execute transactions with favorable business terms benefiting his clients and provides advice his clients have come to value.

Barry has played a role in Cresa being named exclusive real estate advisor for an international engineering firm and the east coast advisor for a national printing company.
